

1. What is vandalism like in your country?

In Dubai, there is no vandalism. Except in abandoned houses. It's too strict here.

2. What do you think/know about vandalism in the Netherlands?

I see a lot of graffiti in places like skateparks and on roads.

3. How well are the public properties in your region maintained?

There are cameras everywhere so there's pretty good security and vandalism is cleaned up and the people who do it have to face consequences.

4. Can you spot any differences/similarities between vandalism in your region compared to ours?

I think in Dubai it's not as tolerated as it is in holland. like in holland they don't pay too much attention to it or clean it off as fast.

5. Do you have any ideas on how we can prevent vandalism from happening?

Teach the younger generations that it's bad and how it affects our future and climate badly.

6. How do you think vandalism affects the region?

it makes the region look less clean and well-kept.

7. Is there anything you noticed about vandalism in the Netherlands or anything you feel should change?

I think there should be more security and strict rules in the Netherlands.
